A Message from the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Economic Development

In accordance with Section 603 of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, I am pleased to report to Congress the accomplishments of the U.S. Economic Development Administration (EDA), U.S. Department of Commerce, for Fiscal Year 2024.

Throughout FY 2024, EDA worked collaboratively with public and private sector partners to encourage economic growth and job creation in regions across the United States. Our flexible program tools allowed us to support a wide range of community needs.

In FY 2024, EDA invested more than $1 billion through its full range of programs to support 695 locally-driven economic development projects. These investments are projected to create or retain 15,821 jobs and generate more than $3.2 billion in private investment. EDA investments support communities throughout the country, helping drive recovery from natural disasters, empower areas experiencing economic distress, and bolster America's capacity to compete globally.

These projects include support for economic development planning that helped communities make strategic decisions regarding their long-term economic growth. EDA made 186 awards to regions and communities, providing close to $30.7 million to develop such plans, which serve as the foundation to other EDA and U.S. Government projects, and enable strategic approaches to community investments.

EDA also invested approximately $119 million in Public Works and Economic Adjustment Assistance projects, which communities identified as critical to ensure their long-term competitiveness. These infrastructure enhancements helped communities mitigate and reverse economic decline resulting from decreases in manufacturing employment following plant closures, changing trade patterns, natural disaster, military base closures, or environmental changes and regulations.

In FY 2024, EDA invested more than $1 billion through its full range of programs to support 695 locally-driven economic development projects. These investments are projected to create or retain 15,821 jobs and generate more than $3.2 billion in private investment.

Additionally, critical Disaster Supplemental assistance funding provided by Congress continued to help disaster-impacted communities rebound and rebuild to be stronger and more secure. In FY 2024, EDA invested $342,028,220 in 149 Disaster Supplemental-funded projects to help communities with necessary expenses related to flood mitigation, disaster relief, long-term recovery, and the restoration of infrastructure in areas that received a major disaster designation. As part of the Economic Adjustment Assistance program, Disaster Supplemental funds are intended to be flexible and responsive to the economic development needs and priorities of local stakeholders.

EDA also selected 31 Tech Hubs and 22 Recompete Pilot Program designees after being allocated $541 million and $200 million for the programs respectively.

In 2024, Congress officially reauthorized EDA, marking another milestone for the agency. As we marked our 60th anniversary in August 2025, we will continue to work directly with American communities and regions to build capacity and facilitate sustained economic development.

Sincerely,

Ben Page
Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Economic Development and Chief Operating Officer

The mission of the Economic Development Administration (EDA) is to lead the federal economic development agenda by promoting innovation and competitiveness, preparing American regions for growth and success in the worldwide economy. EDA's locally driven investments help to establish a foundation for long-term job growth and build durable regional economies throughout the United States. This foundation builds upon two key economic drivers – innovation and regional collaboration. Innovation is key to global competitiveness, new and better jobs, a strong economy, and the attainment of national economic goals. Regional collaboration is essential for economic recovery. EDA encourages its partners around the country to develop initiatives that advance new ideas and innovative approaches to address rapidly evolving economic conditions.

EDA's Role

As the only federal government agency focused exclusively on economic development, EDA plays a key role in facilitating regional economic development efforts in communities across the nation. Guided by the basic principle that economic development should be locally-driven, EDA works directly with communities and regions to help them build the capacity for economic development based on local business conditions and needs.

EDA's grant investments in planning, technical assistance, and infrastructure construction are designed to leverage existing regional assets to support the implementation of economic development strategies that make it easier for businesses to start and grow. EDA's flexible programs and structure enable nimble operations and allow for innovation and responsiveness to changing economic needs and conditions faced by both public and nonprofit partners. Grants made under these programs are designed to leverage existing regional assets to support the implementation of economic development strategies that advance new ideas and creative approaches to advance economic prosperity in distressed communities.

EDA provides economic development financial assistance to communities so they can encourage innovation and entrepreneurship in a way that works best for them. Through its network of regionally-based staff and portfolio of flexible grant tools, EDA helps communities experiencing economic distress take control of their future and position themselves for economic prosperity. In addition, EDA leads the integration of economic development resources from all sources, including federal, state, local and philanthropic, to ensure we are best leveraging our investments and achieving better outcomes for communities across America.

Finally, EDA has begun investing in regions with the potential to become more internationally competitive by developing their innovation and production capabilities. These investments position American communities to thrive by building the workforce of the future, enabling businesses to start and scale, and deploying and delivering critical and emerging technologies.

EDA Investment Priorities

U.S. ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION

In January 2025, the Economic Development Reauthorization Act of 2024 solidified EDA's investment priorities in statute. The following priorities are those reflected in statute, and as-of publication, have not been further amended.

CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE

Economic development planning or implementation projects that support development of public facilities, including basic public infrastructure, transportation infrastructure, or telecommunications infrastructure.

WORKFORCE

Economic development planning or implementation projects that –

a. Support job skills training to meet the hiring needs of the area in which the project is to be carried out and that result in well-paying jobs; or

b. Otherwise promote labor force participation.

INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Economic development planning or implementation projects that –

a. Support the development of innovation and entrepreneurship-related infrastructure;

b. Promote business development and lending; or

c. Foster the commercialization of new technologies that are creating technology-driven businesses and high-skilled, well-paying jobs of the future.

ECONOMIC RECOVERY RESILIENCE

Economic development planning or implementation projects that enhance the ability of an area to withstand and recover from adverse short-term or long-term changes in economic conditions, including effects from industry contractions or economic impacts from natural disasters.

MANUFACTURING

Economic development planning or implementation projects that encourage job creation, business expansion, technology and capital upgrades, and productivity growth in manufacturing, including efforts that contribute to the competitiveness and growth of domestic suppliers or the domestic production of innovative, high-value products and production technologies.

E·D·A

PUBLIC WORKS

This program empowers distressed communities to revitalize, expand, and upgrade their physical infrastructure to attract new industry, encourage business expansion, differentiating local economies, and generate or retain long-term, private sector jobs and investment.

ECONOMIC ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE

This includes the Assistance to Coal Communities, Assistance to Biomass Closure Communities, and Assistance to Nuclear Closure Communities programs. This funding focuses on areas that have experienced or are under threat of serious structural damage to the underlying economic base.

PLANNING

This includes partnership planning, and supports local organizations with short and long-term economic development planning efforts.

Build to Scale

BUILD TO SCALE

The Build to Scale (B2S) Program builds regional economies through scalable startups and includes three competitions supporting entrepreneurship, acceleration of company growth, and increased access to risk capital across regional economies.

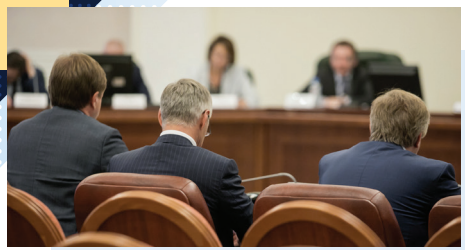

TRADE ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE FOR FIRMS

This national network of 11 Trade Adjustment Assistance Centers to help strengthen the competitiveness of American companies that have lost domestic sales and employment because of increased imports of similar goods and services.

UNIVERSITY CENTERS

This partnership between the federal government and academia that makes the varied and vast resources of universities available to the economic development community.

LOCAL TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

This program helps fill the knowledge and information gaps that may prevent leaders in the public and nonprofit sectors in distressed areas from making optimal decisions on local economic development issues.

GOOD JOBS CHALLENGE

The Good Jobs Challenge is a workforce program that aims to accelerate local economic growth and rebuild regional economies so they are more resilient to future challenges, while placing American workers into jobs.

RESEARCH AND NATIONAL TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

The RNTA program funds research, evaluation, and national technical assistance projects that promote competitiveness and innovation in distressed rural and urban regions throughout the United States and its territories.

REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION HUBS (TECH HUBS)

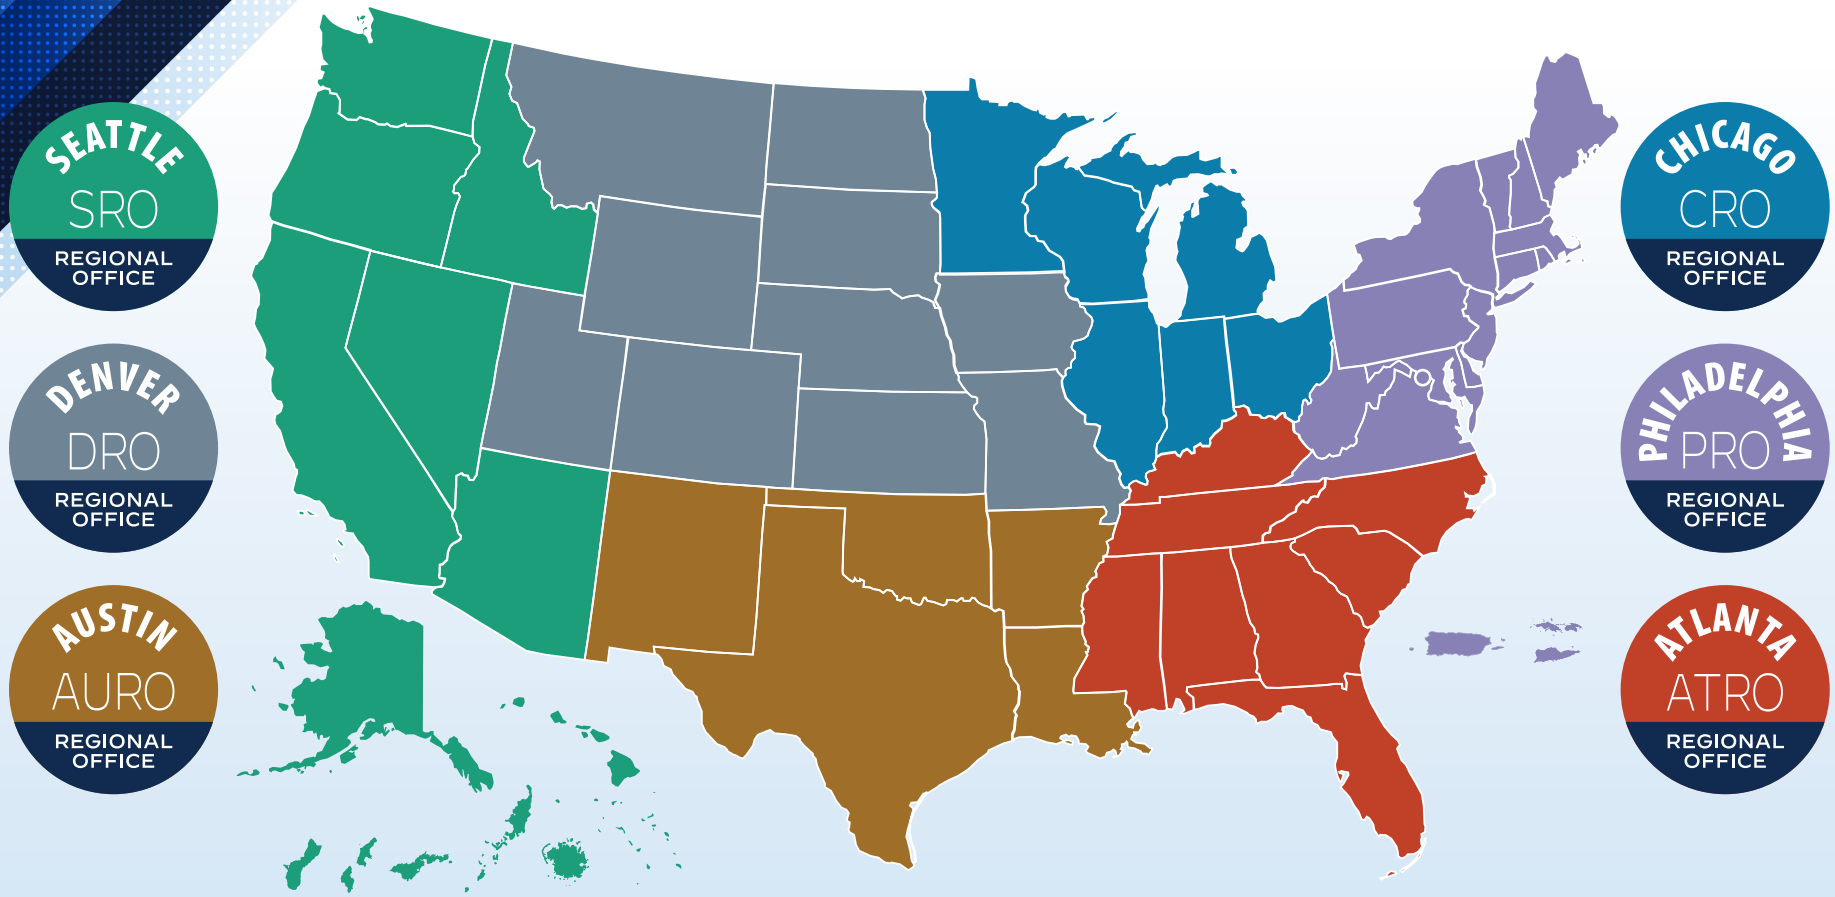

The Tech Hubs program aims to strengthen U.S. economic and national security by investing directly into regions with the assets, resources, capacity and potential to become globally competitive innovation centers within approximately 10 years, while catalyzing the creation of jobs at all skill levels.

RECOMPETE PILOT PROGRAM

The Recompete Pilot Program provides flexible grant investments to alleviate persistent economic distress and support long-term, comprehensive economic development and job creation, targeting areas where prime-age employment significantly trails the national average.

Private Sector Investment Goals

Section 603(b)(2) of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended, requires EDA to include in its Annual Report to Congress a discussion of private sector leveraging goals set for investments awarded to (a) rural* and urban economically distressed areas; and (b) highly distressed areas.

The following information is provided to respond to those requirements:

(a) Recipients of EDA awards in FY 2024, funded via either its Public Works (PW) or regular Economic Adjustment Assistance (EAA) programs, that are expected to leverage approximately $2.5 billion in private investment for projects servicing rural areas and nearly $658.5 million in private investment for projects servicing urban areas.

(b) Recipients of EDA awards in FY 2024 servicing highly distressed areas, funded via its Public Works (PW) or regular Economic Adjustment Assistance (EAA) programs, expect to leverage more than $2.2 billion in private investment.

* Rural includes investments made in Indian tribes.

 For an area to qualify as being highly distressed, one of the following criteria must be met:
(a) having a 24-month unemployment rate of at least 200 percent of the national average,
(b) having a per capita income not more than 60 percent of the national average, or
(c) experiencing a catastrophic disaster.

 Inclusive of Revolving Loan Funds (RLF).

NOTES: The data presented in this report represents the official grant data for awards (organized by applicant state) made by EDA in FY 2024. EDA has verified the data through a reconciliation process, conducted annually, between EDA's grant management systems and the Department of Commerce's accounting system. As such, any previously provided information regarding EDA awards made in FY 2024 should be viewed as a snapshot of the data available at the time of the data request and are subject to any changes, corrections, or updates as reflected in this report. This includes, but is not limited to, revisions to the number, dollar amount, program classification, and estimated impacts of specific grant awards. Projects described within individual state entries are provided as illustrative examples. No project preference should be inferred from these examples. EDA uses this report to demonstrate the breadth and diversity of EDA programs and the projects which it funds.

U.S. Department of Defense reimbursable investments and disaster supplemental investments are not included in these calculations.

Title of Project
Workforce Training Facility Development Project

Project Location
Village of Hastings

EDA Investment
$9,494,029

Local Match and Other Funding Sources
$1,820,536

Brief Project Summary
This EDA Disaster Supplemental Funding investment supports the construction of a workforce training facility in Hastings, Florida. The project will help meet the need for skilled technicians to fill job openings in high demand across northeast Florida, including in the manufacturing sector, heavy equipment sector, metal suppliers, and other construction-related industries. The companies that will benefit from this workforce training facility are all experiencing high growth and suffer from attrition. Their operations are limited by the lack of trained, highly-skilled technicians that can meet company production needs across logistics, distribution, and mechanical environments. This project will create an estimated 458 new jobs, save 93 jobs, and leverage $12 million in private investment.

In FY 2024, EDA invested a total of $50,396,067.25 across 21 projects in the state of Florida, creating/retaining a total of 665 jobs and leveraging $13,910,000 in private investment.

University of Hawaii Pacific Business Center Program

Title of Project
University of Hawaii – University Center

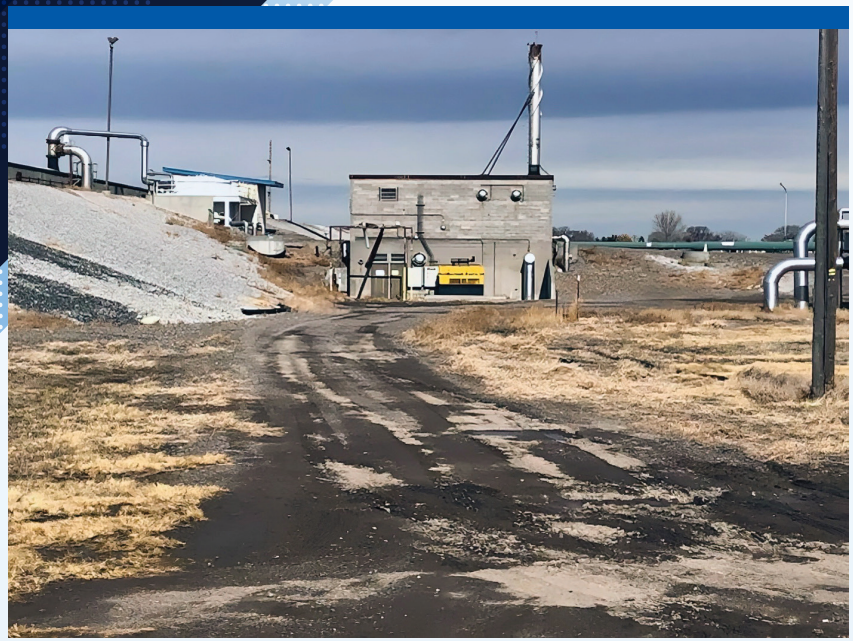

Project Location
City of Honolulu

EDA Investment
$150,000

Local Match and Other Funding Sources
$150,000

Brief Project Summary
This EDA University Center investment supports the University of Hawaii's (UH) Pacific Business Center Program (PBCP), which focuses on economic development throughout the Pacific through workforce development, technical assistance, small business capacity building, and disaster recovery. The PBCP accomplishes this using a comprehensive set of products and services including, but not limited to, business planning, subject matter expertise, feasibility studies, financial projections, market analysis, pilot project creation, commercialization support, and the development of value-added products. As an example of these products and services in action, the PBCP worked with the Hawaii Ulu Cooperative to commercialize value-added products derived from the breadfruit (ulu) tree. The project mobilized technical and business expertise from across UH to develop a comprehensive feasibility study guiding pilot production and commercialization. They also focused on cost of production and a market competition analysis, identifying four breadfruit-derived products with strong commercial opportunities – breadfruit leaf tea, mosquito repellant, extraction oil, and bioethanol. From July 2023 to June 2024, the UH PBCP University Center assisted over 750 clients, beneficiaries, and borrowers. Furthermore, it created or saved over 170 jobs, and helped to generate $6.3 million in private investments.

In FY 2024, EDA invested a total of $150,000 in the state of Hawaii.

Recipient
City of Burley

Title of Project
Burley Industrial Wastewater Project

Project Location
City of Burley

EDA Investment
$4,057,560

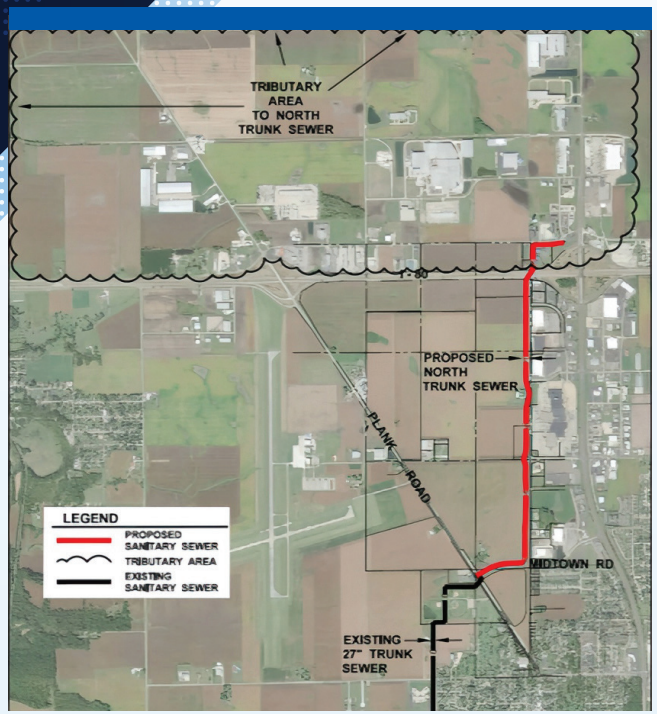

Local Match and Other Funding Sources
$6,346,440

Brief Project Summary

This EDA Public Works investment supports the city of Burley's expansion of its industrial wastewater treatment plant in Burley, Idaho. The project will contribute to the development of economic capacity in the region, supporting higher wage employment opportunities. This project is estimated to create over 500 new jobs, and leverage over $750 million in private investment. The beneficiaries of this industrial wastewater project include food processing companies, as well as their supply chain partners.

In FY 2024, EDA invested a total of $10,888,394 across 9 projects in the state of Idaho, creating/retaining a total of 747 jobs and leveraging $897,000,000 in private investment.

Project Location
City of Peru

EDA Investment
$2,000,000

Local Match and Other Funding Sources
$4,399,250

Brief Project Summary
This EDA Public Works investment supports the city of Peru with making water infrastructure improvements including constructing 9,000 feet of new sanitary sewer as well as purchasing equipment for upgrades at the lift station serving the LaSalle County, Illinois area. These improvements will connect more than 50 existing businesses to the new sewer line. In addition, the project will help the city avoid any interruption in service at the current lift station, which leads to downtime for local businesses that rely on the system. This project will create an estimated 80 new jobs, save more than 800 jobs, and leverage $2 million in private investment.

In FY 2024, EDA invested a total of $12,153,745.56 across 16 projects in the state of Illinois, creating/retaining a total of 1,367 jobs and leveraging $2,000,000 in private investment.

Strafford Regional Planning Commission

Title of Project
Strafford Regional Planning Commission's Economic Development District Planning Program Project

Project Location
City of Rochester

EDA Investment
$210,000

Local Match and Other Funding Sources
$210,000

Brief Project Summary
This EDA Partnership Planning investment supports the Strafford Regional Planning Commission in drafting and implementing a new five-year Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDs), to enhance economic resilience in the 15 municipalities across the Planning Commission's service area. The CEDS identifies workforce, infrastructure, and other projects in the region that will help to achieve economic goals of job growth and increased investment by businesses. Communities and regions with a CEDS are better prepared to help businesses form, grow, and innovate. Sustained investment in economic development planning through the CEDS creates a reliable "local blueprint" for how communities will develop or improve community assets – like public infrastructure – that businesses need to succeed. Having a clear, plan-based understanding of that need results in local economic development actions that are more timely, on-point, and cost-effective. The project will lay the groundwork for long-term economic vitality and advance economic resiliency throughout the region.

In FY 2024, EDA invested a total of $43,988,193 across 8 projects in the state of New Hampshire.

Brief Project Summary
This EDA Recompete Pilot Program investment supports new job and economic growth opportunities on the Wind River Reservation and in Fremont County. Implemented as a series of 8 coordinated projects, EDA funding will enable the Wind River Development Fund to leverage more than $800 million of tourism and related economic activity in nearby Yellowstone National Park. The Recompete Pilot Program also supports facilities and programming for workforce development, healthcare expansion, local agriculture, and other initiatives to promote job growth on the reservation.

In FY 2024, EDA invested a total of $2,139,724 across 3 projects in the state of Wyoming.

EDA'S FY 2024 Financial Highlights

In Fiscal Year 2024, EDA invested approximately $1.09 billion in 695 locally-driven economic development projects nationwide.

These investments included approximately $119 million in Public Works and Economic Adjustment Assistance (regular) construction projects that communities identified as critical infrastructure enhancements to ensure long-term competitiveness. Recipients report that these investments are expected to create or retain 15,821 jobs and generate over $3.1 billion in private investment. Additionally, these investments incentivized over $78.9 million in local matching investments.

EDA also supported economic development planning that will help communities make good decisions regarding long-term economic growth. In FY 2024, EDA made 186 awards to regions and communities, providing them with approximately $30.7 million to develop such plans.

Recipients of EDA awards in FY 2024, funded via either its Public Works or regular Economic Adjustment Assistance programs, expect to leverage approximately $2.5 billion in private investment for projects servicing rural areas and close to $658.5 million in private investment for projects servicing urban areas.

Recipients of EDA awards in FY 2024 servicing highly distressed* areas, funded via either its Public Works or regular Economic Adjustment Assistance programs, expect to leverage over $2.2 billion in private investment.

 For an area to qualify as being highly distressed, one of the following criteria must be met: (a) a 24-month unemployment rate of at least 200 percent of the national average, (b) per capita income not more than 60 percent of the national average, or (c) a catastrophic disaster.*

 Inclusive of Revolving Loan Funds (RLF)*
